

Mrs. Kneiseler Will Entertain Club at Home on Sept. 18

Members of Torrance Woman's Club and their friends will be entertained at a luncheon and card party at the home of Mrs. Frank Kneiseler at 1008 Annapola avenue Wednesday, Sept. 18, at 12:30 p. m.

ST. ANDREW'S GROUP PLANS PARTY

Mrs. Lillian Snow will serve as general chairman for a progressive evening party sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal church Friday evening, Oct. 4. Guests will play cards at various members' homes and will gather at Guild hall at the close of the evening where refreshments will be served.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON CLUB AT MCKINLEY'S

Members of the Thursday Afternoon club were entertained at luncheon and bridge when they met at the home of Mrs. May McKinley last week. Those present were Mesdames Myrtle McManus, B. F. Dye, T. H. Kenrick, M. Dolley-Shields, H. A. Lewis, J. O. Moore, Ruth Haggard of Los Angeles and the hostess.

Mesdames Kendrick and Dolley-Shields were awarded prizes for high score at bridge while Mrs. McManus received a travel prize and Mrs. Lewis a consolation. The ladies will leave Sunday for a week's vacation at Crestline.

CLUB LADIES BAKE FRESH APPLE PIES

Mrs. G. A. Evans and Mrs. E. A. Lock will do their bit to swell the fund for Torrance Woman's Club by baking and selling fresh apple pies Friday and Saturday. Orders, at 35 cents each, are now being taken by Mrs. Evans at Torrance 91.

Local Girl to Play Before L. A. Church Group Friday Night

An interesting opportunity for one of Torrance's young pianists will be afforded Miss Doris Robinsonette, 13, of 1015 Acacia avenue, when she is presented in piano solos Friday evening, Sept. 13, at Immanuel Presbyterian church on Wilshire boulevard, at the opening of the meeting of the Business Women's Club. Another feature of the evening will be the talk by Dr. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor of the church, who has just returned from two months' vacation and honeymoon trip in the East and South.

Doris Robinsonette has been studying piano and harmony with Kathryn Buffington, pianist and teacher at 1533 Marcellina avenue, since she was six years old and has proven herself an excellent musician.

DINNER PARTY AT PENNINGTON'S

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pennington entertained Sunday at a dinner party at their home, 2378 Maricopa Place. At the dining table centered with an attractive arrangement of garden flowers, covers were placed for Mrs. L. Hudson and Mrs. Alice Bowers of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. G. Flynn of Hawthorne, Mrs. Viola Brimhall and Henry Draper of Redondo Beach, Miss Thelma Gate and Ed Evinger of Los Angeles, Al Pennington of San Bernardino, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smith and the hosts.

MRS. BURGNER RECEIVES GUESTS

Mrs. W. F. Burgner was hostess when she entertained her bridge club at her home, 1630 Beech street, last week. Those present were Mesdames Mary Jones of South Gate, Alice Beck of Compton, Hazel Hand of Los Angeles, Katrina Bright of Baldwin Park and the hostess. A bridge award was presented to Mrs. Jones.

Murrell-Tunks Wedding Held in L. A. Monday

The wedding of Miss La Veda Mae Tunks, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Tunks of 720 Border avenue, to Cecil Verne Murrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Murrell of Fairmont, Nebraska, was solemnized at a simple ceremony performed Monday in Los Angeles. Rev. J. J. Dubose officiated.

The bride, zoned in silk lace over taffeta wore a corsage of delphinium and fern. Mr. and Mrs. Murrell will make their home in Ontario, California, where the groom is employed by the E. F. Smith Company. The bride is a graduate of Fairbury, Nebraska, high school and the groom was graduated from Fairmont, Nebraska high school.

If these two lassies don't seem upset that vacation's over and school's in, maybe it's because of their new dresses... As pictured in the September Good Housekeeping, the girl on the left is wearing a gingham dress with pinafore ruffles; the one on the right a white cotton broadcloth blouse with suspender skirt.

Mildred Holland, Bride-To-Be, Given Shower by Friends

Miss Mildred Holland, whose wedding to James Halter of El Segundo will take place early next month, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given for her last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. R. F. Hogue. Mrs. O. E. Hall assisted as co-hostess. Pink and white asters were used to decorate the rooms and games pertaining to the shower furnished diversion for the guests. Mrs. Charles Ward and Mrs. J. F. Keefe were prize winners. Ice cream molded in wedding bell forms were featured in the buffet refreshments served at the close of the evening.

Included were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Charles Holland, and Mesdames Halter, Sr., and W. Steuman of El Segundo; Lee German and daughter, Norine of Eagle Rock; Harold King of San Bernardino; Stewart Holland and daughter of Redondo Beach; James Carliell and Thomas Parker of Los Angeles; Ralph Anderson of Long Beach; Kenneth Fasnacht, C. B. Bell, Wm. Whitney, O. A. Kresse, G. T. Derouin, Charles Ward, D. C. Turner, H. W. Warren, R. E. Hall, Ed McWhumphy, Max Shaw, S. S. Worrell, J. F. Keefe, L. C. Burger, J. O. Bishop, William Sinclair, Hugh Henry, L. E. Stanley, the Misses Jean Kresse, Margaret Hall, Corlisa Reeve, Doris Worrell and the hostess.

SALLY CELEBRATES FOURTH BIRTHDAY

The fourth birthday of Sally Sprout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Sprout of 1327 Beech street, was celebrated with a party at the family home Monday afternoon. A treasure hunt highlighted the activities and birthday cake and ice cream were served in the late afternoon. Those present were the honoree and Jane Fischer, Barbara Ludwig, Maren and Judy Wright, Mike Silver, Burton Falk, Jerry Neely, Richard Reiff, Raymond and Bobby Marazz, Wanda Irby, Richard Hambeck, Charlene St. Martin, Bobby Quimby and Peggy Sprout.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS SHOWER BRIDE

A group of 11 members of the Royal Neighbors went to Moneta yesterday to give Mrs. Jean Crawford Bain a surprise shower luncheon. The recent bride was presented with a beautiful linen tablecloth. The potluck luncheon was served to Mesdames Ada Munsato, Leola Doan, Marie Benson, Adaline Smith, Elsie Smith, Lizzie Benzel, Martha Cooper, Mary Baker, Mary Conner, Louise Walker, and the mother of the bride, Blanche Crawford.

MRS. DEROUIN IS CLUB HONOREE

Mrs. Glenn Robinson entertained members of the Art-Craft club at her home on Andree avenue last Friday evening. Mrs. Ethel Derouin was honored by the group by the presentation of a beautiful bathmat, complete with bath toys. Brunch furnished the evening entertainment with Mrs. Charles Ward and Miss Eva McCormick as prize winners. Attractively decorated individual cakes and ice cream were served at a late hour.

J. D.'S TO HOLD PRACTICE SATURDAY

Job's Daughters are requested to attend a practice at 1 p. m. Saturday at Masonic Temple. A school of instruction and inspection will be conducted at the regular meeting Tuesday evening on the occasion of the official visit of district deputy Mrs. Gastriker of Compton.

KIDNAP BREAKFAST P.T.A. PROJECT

As a Torrance Elementary P. T. A. benefit, Mrs. H. R. Lee entertained at her home with a "kidnap breakfast" this morning. This "come-as-you-are" affair produced many strange appearances at the breakfast table as the guests were brought without benefit of "priming."
